Refunds are available in certain conditions.

- If a student cancels their enrolment 4 weeks or more before the course begins, they will receive a full refund of paid fees, except for a $100 administration charge and less any applicable agent's fees.
- If a student cancels their enrolment less than 4 weeks before their course begins, they will receive a full refund, except for a $100 administration charge and one week's tuition fee of $310, and less any applicable agent's fees.
- If a student cancels their enrolment after their course begins, they will receive a full refund, except for a $100 administration charge and two week's tuition fees of $620, and less any applicable agent's fees. If there are exceptional circumstances for late cancellation, the student can discuss these with the Director of Studies.
- If the English Language Centre is unable to deliver a course in which a student has enrolled, they will receive a full refund, less any applicable agent's fees.
- Students can apply for a refund by writing a letter addressed to the Director of Studies giving their reasons for a refund.

This agreement does not remove the right to take further action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

Southern Cross University's dispute resolution processes do not circumscribe the student's right to pursue other legal remedies.

I understand and accept the above conditions. I also understand that the information provided to the university may be made available to Commonwealth and State agencies, pursuant to obligations under the ESOS Act 2000 and the National Code.
